KAOS Ensemble was founded in 2015 by the Russian violinist Lev Adamov and the Belgian soprano Britt Truys. Wishing to share their passion for music with a diverse audience, they started exploring new forms of expression.

Listening to KAOS is a unique experience. The musical programme has been compiled with great care, leading you from pop to classics and back. This mix of genres allows to place the classical work in a new context and challenges the audience to listen differently.

The first programme presented by KAOS Ensemble is entitled 'Deliver Us'. Its avant-première took place on 05.07.2015. The feedback was very positive.

'Deliver Us' is a concert for string quartet and soprano, performing music of Dmitri Shostakovich, combined with 'The Juliet Letters', music composed by pop singer Elvis Costello for strings and vocals.

KAOS Ensemble takes you on a journey to the stories behind the lyrics of the song cycle 'The Juliet Letters'. The sounds remain with the listener and tell about grief, rejection and eternal love. The music of Dmitri Shostakovich breathes the underlying helplessness and perdition. The musical choices of KAOS ensemble are based upon universal beauty and feelings of great passion.
